

Auction Property Valuer

MS Auctions – London

MS Auctions are looking to recruit a Regional Property Valuer. In return they offer a competitive salary package, outstanding training and the chance to work for an ambitious and experienced auction team who can offer you a rewarding and progressive career potentially from new recruit to a seat in the Boardroom.

As a Property Valuer you will attend property site visits and match the client's motivation and needs to one of our fast sale solutions. You will correctly identify the true value of properties and what price they need to be marketed at to generate interest at the property auction.

- Attending 20+ property site visits per week
- Ensuring a high conversion rate from site visit to instruction
- Cross selling of financial services and preferred conveyancing companies
- Intelligently pricing the property to ensure a 'fast sale'
- After each site visit liaise with head office
- Working to strict deadlines whilst maintaining the standards expected by the company
- Working to targets

We would consider candidates with experience as a lettings negotiator, lettings manager, sales negotiator, estate agent, senior sales negotiator, branch manager, marketing advisor, property valuer, surveyor, property consultant, property sales executive, business transfer agent, commercial estate agent, lister, property auction sales or any property related field.

Please apply in the first instance via email and also state your salary expectations to hr@msauctions.co.uk and we will call you for a confidential discussion should your cv be of interest.
